Let us return for a moment to the image of the mega library. How to proceed But how can the Akashic Records be consulted? And it continues to do so even in the present; we write our history by making our Akashic register something alive and interactive. Subsequently, in the writings of great psychics and seers such as Madame Blavatsky, Alice Bailey, Rudolf Steiner, and Edgar Cayce, to name but a few, reference is made to the Akashic field as a "place" from which to draw information. The information arrives in various ways: in the form of words, images, or sensations that can be felt by both those who channel and those who receive the reading. Something that pervades all things, omnipresent. We also get in touch with ourselves but we without personality, without ego, we manifest mastery, that is our essence, our Spirit. When we open our Akashic Record, we ask specific questions on issues of our life that are important to us, and the answer always comes, accompanied by the frequency of unconditional love. 2013 The Akashic Records: the way to spiritual independence Human relationships get difficult and everything seems to go the opposite way to what we want. Now greater Happiness, Health, and Fulfillment can be yours, using these spiritual healing prayers and soul wisdom. She is the founder, CEO and teacher of Akashic Knowing School of Wisdom, an internationally recognized school where students can learn to access their soul wisdom in their Akashic Records along with numerous healing tools, meditation, and prayer systems. Free will is the greatest form of unconditional love that exists – all the work of the Akashic records is based on this. If, on the other hand, we wish to do it alone, we can attend a first level tuning-initiation course to learn how to read our registers and a second level to read those of the people who request it. Something went wrong. In this sense, it can be said that the Akashic records are interactive because they leave open the possibility of exercising our free will. She has spent more than ten years as a Religious Science Certified Practitioner, R.S.c.P., where she offered healing prayer treatment to the congregations and served as vice president on the board of directors. This unconditional love that we receive is the most powerful, transforming, and healing energy there is. According to this vision, there is no predetermined destiny, karma has an irremediable result on actions performed in the past to which we must submit powerlessly and resigned, but on the contrary, there is always the possibility of understanding, overcoming, and evolving. During the earthly experience, we could find ourselves in a stalemate in which we seem to have lost the clarity of direction, enthusiasm, and the very meaning of life. Every thought, every emotion, every vicissitude that you have experienced life after life, leaves an energetic trace on this book. Thank you for interesting in our services. In this register, (if instead of the computer you prefer to imagine a huge library, your register would be one of the billions of volumes that compose it) in this virtual place, the whole history of your essence or soul from the detachment from the Source up to today is preserved. It is said that before descending into human form on Earth, the essence establishes the fundamental experiences through which it wants to pass. Cayce did not see it as a debt to be paid at any cost, but as a store of memories that can be lightened by acting on one's own free will. The school has thousands of students worldwide with dozens of certified consultants and teachers. Edgar Cayce (1877-1945), the greatest contemporary connoisseur of the Akashic Records, for years made accurate readings on people's health, real diagnoses, with great clarity and precision, declaring to "read" the information on the person's Akashic register itself. But the thoughts, intuitions, emotions, and aspirations that we have in the present moment can make us take a different direction from the one we had established before incarnating. First of all, they are made of Akasha. Lisa has more than twenty-five years of experience in spiritual healing and is a master of many healing modalities. The information we receive is confirmation, they are indications to help us listen to the voice of the heart, to which we do not always give credit, preferring to follow the suggestions that seem more "logical" to us in our minds, but that in the end do not make us happy. I love to call it a "film" on which all the events, all the emotions, all the thoughts, all the stories of every sentient being and the whole Universe are recorded, from its origin to today. We do not find peace and the mind and his films torment us relentlessly. Wait a moment and try again. In Sanskrit, Akasha means "immanent light that impregnates the worlds". Since I encountered this possibility, I have lived in the joy of knowing and feeling that this life is perfect exactly as it is, without judging and without wanting to understand everything immediately, allowing me to flow with what is there. If we cannot do it on our own, the simplest way is to turn to a reader, that is to a person who has received first and second level initiations or to a Master (who has the additional degree of mastery) and ask for a reading. Imagine a universal computer with an infinite memory that contains countless files. The Masters love us so much that they never interfere in our choices so as not to deprive us of the opportunity to experience. But what are these Akashic records? That is, we could find ourselves in the situation of not necessarily having to live the experiences we had written on our Register before we were born. First, it transforms our consciousness, allowing us to understand things from a broader level and regain the awareness of being spiritual beings traveling in the density of the body and not the bodies that occasionally experience the spirit. Masters To whom is contact made when we open our Akashic Record?
